

My Lists - Schedule a Reminder

Send yourself a reminder when it's time to reorder your list. Set your frequency, intervals and start/end date to keep your products on hand before you need them.

1. Click the "schedule a reminder" link above your list details

2. This modal will pop up and enable you to schedule your Frequency (daily/weekly), the Intervals, day of the week, your start date/end date or select "no end date". You also can add an optional message and then "schedule".
